

CODE OF ETHICS OF THE VISITOR AND ECO-TOURISM KUYIMA

LAGOON SAN IGNACIO, B.C.S.

| | ECO-TOURISM KUYIMA | TOURISTS and VISITORS |
|--|--|--|
| | We commit a | We commit a |
| Contribution of the tourism to the mutual understanding and the respect between men and societies | To meet and to respect the tourists who visit to us with the purpose of to contribute to a hospitable reception and the satisfaction of their tastes and their expectations. To assure the protection the tourists and visitors and their goods. | To respect and to value the social and cultural traditions and practices of the places that we visited They will avoid all act criminal or considered criminal, as well as any behavior that can be startling or wounding for the local population, or to damage the surroundings of the place. |
| The tourism, instrument of development personnel and group | To respect the equality of men and women. Also, they will be directed to promote the specific human rights and, in particular, rights of the more vulnerable groups of population, especially the children, the people majors and handicapped people, the ethnic minorities and the native towns, | To respect the equality of men and women. Also, they will direct themselves to promote the specific human rights and, in particular, rights of the more vulnerable groups of population, especially the children, the people majors and handicapped people, the ethnic minorities and the native towns. |
| The tourism, factor of development sustainable | To conserve the natural environment and resources, in the prospect of an adjusted economic growth, constant and sustainable, that is able to equitably satisfy the needs and aspirations of the present and future generations. To save little and valuable natural resources, in particular the water and the energy, and to avoid the production of remainders as far as possible, as well as to reduce the pressure that carries out the tourist activity in the environment. To generate benefits in the local development of the places in which the tourist activities are realized. To program the tourist activities so that the natural patrimony is protected that constitutes the ecosystems and the biological diversity, and that preserve the species in danger of the fauna and the wild flora. | To conserve the natural environment and resources, in the prospect of an adjusted economic growth, constant and sustainable, that is able to equitably satisfy the needs and aspirations of the present and future generations. To save little and valuable natural resources, in particular the water and the energy, and to avoid the production of remainders as far as possible, as well as to reduce the pressure that carries out the tourist activity in the environment. To participate in the local development of the places that we visited. To participate in the protection the natural patrimony that constitutes the ecosystems and the biological diversity, and that preserves the species in danger of the fauna and the wild flora. |
| The tourism, factor of advantage and enrichment of the patrimony cultural of the humanity | To respect to the artistic, archaeological and cultural patrimony. | To respect to the artistic, archaeological and cultural patrimony. |
| | To participate in maintenance, protection, improvement of monuments, sanctuaries and museums, as well as of the places of historical or archaeological interest, | To participate in protection and to the rehabilitation of monuments, sanctuaries and museums, as well as of the places of historical or archaeological interest, |

| | | |
|--|--|--|
| | That the tourist activities that we organize allow to the survival and the blossoming of traditional the cultural and artisan production, as well as of the folklore, and that does not lead to its normalization and impoverishment | |
| The tourism, beneficial activity for the countries and the communities of destiny | To promote the incorporation of the populations and local communities in the activities tourist, as well as to promote an equitable participation in the economic, social and cultural benefits that report. | |
| Obligations of the agents of the development Tourist | To facilitate to the tourists an objective and truthful information on the places of destiny and the conditions of trip, reception and stay, as well as to assure the absolute transparency the clauses contracts that they propose our clients, as much with respect to the nature, to the price and the quality of the benefits. | |
| | To guard by the security, the accident prevention, the sanitary protection and the nourishing hygiene of the tourists and visitors who resort to our services. | |
| | To contribute to the total cultural and spiritual development of the tourists, | |
| | To spread information truthful and balanced on the events and the situations that can influence in the visitación, as well as to facilitate precise and trustworthy indications to the consumers of tourist services. For that aim, we commit ourselves to use the new technologies of communication and electronic commerce. | |
| | To develop the social tourism, in particular the associative tourism, that allows the access of the majority of the citizens to the leisure, to the trips and the vacations. | |
| | It will be fomented and the tourism of the families, the young people and the students will be facilitated, of the people majors and of which they suffer disabilities. | |
| Freedom of displacement tourist | To promote the access to the traffic zones and stay, thus like the tourist and cultural sites without exaggerated formalities nor discriminations. | |
| | To recognize all physical and legal person the right to carry out a professional activity in the scope of the tourism, whenever it demonstrates to own the dispositions and necessary qualifications. | |